This matter is before the Court with the Report and Recommendation (“Report”) of United States Magistrate Jacquelyn D. Austin, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2) of the District of South Carolina.¹ (DE 13.) Petitioner Brandon Lemar Miles (“Petitioner” or “Miles”) is a pretrial detainee at the Greenville County Detention Center (“Detention Center”). Petitioner, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, filed this action for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 against Respondent Warden of the Greenville County Detention Center (“Respondent”), alleging he is being detained at the Detention Center without bond as he was denied bond on May 12, 2023. (DE 1, p. 1.) Petitioner contends he is challenging a kidnapping charge that was brought against him at the Detention Center, alleging the charge is “false” as he was “simply asking for a higher chain of command.” (DE 1, p. 2.) Petitioner further contends he filed a grievance with Major Marshall Stowers but received no response. (Id.) For relief, Petitioner asks “the Court to help [him] get the charge dropped completely because it is a defamation to [his] character.” (Id. at 7.)

The Report was issued on August 18, 2023, recommending the Petition be dismissed for failure to exhaust state court remedies and because the Court should abstain from deciding the merits under Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37 (1971). (DE 13, p. 5.) Petitioner has not objected to the Report. In the absence of objections to the Report and Recommendation, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). The Court must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005).

Accordingly, after a thorough review of the Report and Recommendation and the record in this case, the Court finds no clear error on the face of the record. Therefore, the Court adopts the Report (DE 13) and incorporates it herein by reference.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that Miles’s Petition is dismissed without requiring the respondent to file a return. Further, it is ORDERED that a certificate of appealability is denied because Petitioner has failed to make “a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Joseph Dawson, III
United States District Judge
